LORD, Thou Hast Been Our Dwellingplace
vs. 1-11

1. LORD, Thou hast been our dwelling-place Through all the a-ge-s of our race; Before the mountains had their gen-er-a-tions rise; A thou-sand years are passed aswell-ing tide of death; Like tran-sient sleep his sea-sons birth, Or ev-er Thou hadst formed the earth, From ev-er-way, And all to Thee are but a day; Yea, like the pass, His life is like the ten-der grass, Lux-u-riant

6. O teach Thou us to count our days
   And set our hearts on wisdom's ways;
   Turn, LORD, to us in our distress,
   In pity now Thy servants bless;
   Let mercy's dawn dispel our night,
   And all our days with joy be bright.

7. O send the day of joy and light,
   For long has been our sorrow's night;
   Afflicted through the weary years,
   We wait until Thy help appears;
   With us and with our sons abide,
   In us let God be glorified.

8. So let there be on us bestowed
   The beauty of the LORD our God;
   The work accomplished by our hand
   Establish Thou, and make it stand;
   Yea, let our hopeful labor be Established evermore by Thee.
1. LORD, thro' all the generations Of the children of our race,
2. Each succeeding generation At Thymight'y word appears;
3. In Thy wrath our spirits languish, Sinful heath Thy search-ing eye;
4. Who can weigh Thy just dis-pleasure, Who can fear Thee as he ought?
5. Long the clouds of evil lower; Bless us now with glad-some days;

In our fears and trib-ulations, Thou hast been our dwelling-place.
 Thou dost count in time's duration One day as a thousand years.
 All our days are passed in anguish, In Thy wrath we pine and die.
 Teach us now our days to measure And to wisdom turn our thought.
 Let Thy servants see Thy power, Let their children learn Thy praise.

Ere the vast and wide creation By Thy word was caused to be,
 Death with swift and sudden warning, Calls us from life's dream away,
 Threescore years and ten we tardy, Four-score years the strong may stay,
 LORD return, regard our sadness; With Thy servants now abide;
 On us let the grace and beauty Of the LORD our God remain,

Or the mountains held their station, Thou art God eternal.
 Like the grass green in the morning, With-ered ere the close of day.
 Long the load of grief to carry, Till at last we fly away.
 Fill our days with joy and gladness, With Thy mercy sat-is-fied.
 Strength-en us for noble duty That our work be not in vain.

O God, Our Help In Ages Past
vs. 1-5. The portions preceded by x are not versifications of the Psalm.

1. O God, our help in ages past, Our hope for years to come,
   Under the shadow of Thy throne Thy saints have dwelt secure;
   Before the hills in order stood, Or earth received her frame,
   A thousand ages in Thy sight Are like an evening gone;

2. Our shelter from the stormy blast, And our eternal home.
   Sufficient is Thine arm alone, And our defense is sure.
   From everlasting Thou art God, To endless years the same.
   Short as the watch that ends the night Before the rising sun.

5. Time, like an ever rolling stream,
   Bears all its sons away;
   They fly forgotten, as a dream
   Dies at the opening day.

6. O God, our help in ages past,
   Our hope for years to come,
   Be Thou our guard while troubles last,
   And our eternal home.
91A The Man Who Once Has Found Abode
vs. 1-16

1. The man who once has found abode Within the secret place of God
   Shall with Almighty power abide In His shadow safe and held in God's care.
2. I of the LORD my God will say, He is my refuge and my stay;
   To Him for safety I will fly, In Him my constant trust shall be.
3. The Lord with His protective care Shall keep thee from the hidden snare;
   When fearful plagues arise, Around us shall the scourge not prevail.
4. Thou shalt beneath His wings abide, And safe with His care confide;
   His faithfulness shall not be dimmed, Nor plagues that waste upon thee.
5. No nightly terrors shall alarm, No deadly shaft by day shall harm,
   And in His shadow safe and held in God's care, I will fly, In Him my constant trust shall be.

6. At thy right hand, though thousands die,
   No harm shall unto thee come nigh;
   But thou secure, unharmed, shalt see
   What wicked men's reward shall be.

7. Because thy trust is GOD alone,
   Thy refuge is the Highest One,
   No evil shall upon thee come,
   Nor plague approach thy guarded home.

8. Angelic guards at His commands
   Will bear thee safely in their hands,
   Will keep thee, lest, if venomed spite,

9. Though fierce and treach'rous foes assail,
   Their pow'r and wrath shall not prevail;
   Their cruel strength, their venomed spite,
   Thou shalt o'ercome with conqu'ring might.

10. Because on Me he set his love,
    I will his constant Saviour prove,
    And since to him My Name is known,
    I will exalt him as My own.

11. As oft as he shall call on Me,
    Most gracious shall My answer be;
    I will be with him in distress,
    And in his trouble I will bless.

12. Complete deliverance I will give,
    And honor him while he shall live;
    Abundant life I will bestow,
    To him My full salvation show.

95B Now With Joyful Exultation

vs. 1-11

1. Now with joyful exultation Let us sing Jehovah's praise,
2. For, how great a God, and glorious, Is Jehovah Whom we sing;
3. To the LORD, such might revealing, Let us come with reverence meet,
4. God proclaims His great salvation. Let us hear His voice today,

To the Rock of our salvation Loud hosannas let us raise;
Over idol gods victorious, Great is He, our God and King.
And, before our Maker kneeling, Let us worship at His feet.
Lest, if we our hearts should harden, We should perish in the way;

Thankful tribute gladly bringing, Let us come before Him now,
In His hand are earth's deep places, His the strength of all the hills,
He is our own God and leads us, We the people of His care;
Lest to us, so unbelieving, He in judgment shall declare:

And, with psalms His praises singing, Joyful in His presence bow.
His the sea whose bounds He crosses, His the land His bounty fills.
With a shepherd's hand He feeds us As His flock in pastures fair.

2. The LORD is great above all gods, Let glad hosannas rise;
3. Let all the peoples of the earth Give glory to the LORD,
4. To all the nations of the earth The blessed tidings bring;
5. Let heav'n and earth and sounding sea To Him glad tribute bring;

In daily praises bless His Name And tell His grace abroad.
The heathen gods are idols vain; Je-hovah made the skies.
Give Him the glory due His Name And strength to Him accord;
Tell all the world Je-hovah reigns, The universal King.
Let field and wood and all there-in Before Je-hovah sing;

Among the nations far and wide His glory celebrate;
Great honor is before His face, And majesty divine;
With ofrings come ye to His courts, In holy beauty bow,
The world shall there-fore stand un-moving, Established by His might;
For, lo, He comes to judge the earth, And all the world shall see

To all the peoples of the earth His wondrous works relate.
With-in His holy dwelling-place Both strength and beauty shine.
Let all the earth with reverence come And serve Je-hovah now.

1. O make a joyful noise, ye lands,
2. Know that the LORD is God alone;
3. With glad thanks-giving throng His gates,
4. For He is good, and time shall prove

And serve the LORD with fear;
He made us and will keep,
His goodness to proclaim;
His mercies ever sure,

With gladness wait His high commands,
For we are, and not our own,
With in His courts, where mercy waits,
And while the ages onward move

And with a song draw near.
His people and His sheep.
Give thanks and bless His Name.
His truth shall still endure.
1. Of mercy and of justice My thankful song shall be;
2. On what is base and evil I will not set my heart;
3. The faithful and the upright Shall minister to me;

O LORD, in joyful praises My song shall rise to Thee.
Transgressors' ways abhorring, With them I take no part.
The lying and deceitful My favor shall not see.

Within my house I purpose To walk in wisdom's way;
No forward man or evil Shall my companion be;
I will in daily judgment All wickedness reward,

O Lord, I need Thy presence; How long wilt Thou delay?
I will not suffer slander Or pride or treachery.
And cleanse from evil doers The city of the LORD.
1. LORD, hear my prayer, and let my cry
2. Attend, O Lord, to my desire,
3. My heart is withered like the grass,
4. Like pelican in wilderness

Have ready access un to Thee;
O haste to answer when I pray,
And I forget my daily bread;
And like a desert lonely owl

When in distress to Thee I fly,
For grief consumes my strength like fire,
In long and bitter groans, alas
I watch in anxious restlessness

O hide not Thou Thy face from me.
My days as smoke pass swiftly away.
My strength is gone, I'm almost dead.
As house top sparrow, lonely fowl.

5. My foes reproach me all the day,
   My drink is tears, my bread is grief,
10 For in Thy wrath I pine away,
11 My days are like a fading leaf.

6. 12 Thou, O Jehovah, shalt endure,
    Thy throne forever is the same;
    And to all generations sure
    Shall be Thy great memorial Name.

7. 13 The time for Zion's help is near,
    The time appointed in Thy love;
    O let Thy gracious aid appear,
    Look Thou in mercy from above.

8. 14 O Lord, regard the prayer of those
    Who love the walls of Zion well,
    Whose hearts are heavy for her woes,
    Who sad amid her ruins dwell.

9. 15 Thy pow'r and glory shall appear,
    And Zion's walls shall be restored;
    Then all the kings of earth shall fear
    And heathen nations serve the Lord.

10. 17 The Lord has heard and answered prayer
    And saved His people in distress;
    18 This to the coming age declare,
    That they His holy Name may bless.

11. 19 The Lord, exalted on His throne,
    Looked down from heav'n with pitying eye
20 To still the lowly captive's moan
    And save His people doomed to die.

12. 21 All men in Zion shall declare
    His gracious Name with one accord,
22 When kings and nations gather there
    To serve and worship God the Lord.

13. 23 Before my journey is complete
    My vigor fails, my years decline;
24 My God, O spare me, I entreat;
    The days of life are wholly Thine.

14. 25 O cut not short my life's brief day,
    O Thou Whose years eternal run,
    Thou Who didst earth's foundations lay,
    Creator of the stars and sun.

15. 26 The earth and heav'n's shall pass away,
    Like vesture worn and laid aside,
27 But changeless Thou shalt live for aye,
    Thy years forever shall abide.

16. 28 Thy servants' children shall remain
    For evermore before Thy face;
    Enduring honor they shall gain,
    Established ever in Thy grace.
1. Thou, O LORD, art God alone; Ever last-ing is Thy throne;
2. If with love compassion-ate We, Thy serv-ants, mourn her state,
3. This all ages shall record For the glo-ry of the LORD;
4. As one lays a gar-ment by, Thou wilt change the star-ry sky

Through the ages men shall sing Praise to heav'n's e-ter-nal King.
Wilt not Thou, O gra-cious LORD, Help in Zi-on's need af-ford?
Thou dost hear the hum-ble prayer, For the help-less Thou dost care.
Like a ves-ture worn and old, But Thy years shall ne'er be told.

Thou, en-throned a-bove the skies, Wilt for Zi-on's help a-rise;
LORD, Thy glo-ry shall ap-pear, Kings and na-tions then shall fear;
Thou e-ter-nal art, and great, Heav'n and earth Thou didst create,
Thou wilt make Thy serv-ants' race Ever live be-fore Thy face,

Let Thy grace to her ap-pear, For the prom-ised time is near.
And Thy Name shall be a-dored When Thy Zi-on is restored.
Heav'n and earth shall pass a-way, Change-less Thou shalt live for aye.
And for-ev-er at Thy side Chil-dren's chil-dren shall a-bide.

5. The LORD will judge in righteousness
    For all that are oppressed;
    To all His saints His gracious acts
    And ways are manifest.

6. The LORD is ever merciful,
    And unto anger slow;
    His lovingkindness and His grace
    In rich abundance flow.

7. He will not chide for evermore,
    He turns His wrath away;
    He has not strictly marked our sins,
    Our evil to repay.

8. As heaven is high above the earth,
    So great His mercy proves;
    As far from us as east from west
    He all our sin removes.

9. The tender love a father has
    For all his children dear,
    Such love the Lord bestows on them
    Who worship Him in fear.

10. The Lord remembers we are dust,
    And all our frailty knows;
    Man's days are like the tender grass,
    And as the flow'r he grows.

11. The flow'r is withered by the wind
    That smites with blighting breath;
    So man is quickly swept away
    Before the blast of death.

12. Unchanging is the love of God,
    From age to age the same,
    Displayed to all who do His will
    And reverence His Name.

13. Those who His gracious covenant keep
    The Lord will ever bless;
    Their children's children shall rejoice
    To see His righteousness.

14. Established in the highest heav'n's
    The Lord has set His throne,
    And over all His kingdom rules,
    For He is God alone.

15. Ye angels that excel in strength,
    Bless ye the LORD your God;
    Ordained to hear and do His will,
    Proclaim His praise abroad.

16. Bless ye the LORD, all ye His hosts
    That serve the LORD, your King,
    And wait His pleasure to perform,
    To Him your praises bring.

17. Bless ye the LORD, all ye His works
    In His dominion broad,
    And, never ceasing, O my soul,
    Bless thou the LORD, thy God.
1. O my soul, bless thou Jehovah, All within me bless His Name;
2. He with tender mercies crowns thee, Satisfies thy full request,
3. Yea, the LORD is full of mercy And compassion for distress,
4. As the heav’n’s are high above us, Great His love to us has proved;

Bless Jehovah and forget not All His mercies to proclaim.
So that like the tireless eagle Thou with youth renewed art blessed.
Far as east from west is distant, He has all our sins removed.

He forgiest all thy transgressions, Heals thy sicknesses and pains.
Righteous is the LORD in judgment Unto all that are oppressed;
He will not be angry away, Nor will He ever chide;
As a father loves his children, Feeling pity for their woes,

He redeemeth thee from destruction, And His love thy life sustains.
To His people He has ever Made His goodness manifest.
Tho’ we oft have sinned against Him Still His love and grace abide.
So the LORD to those who fear Him Mercy and compassion shows.

My Soul, Bless The LORD

1. My soul, bless the LORD! the LORD is most great;
2. He rides on the clouds, the wings of the storm,
3. O'er mountain and plain the dark waters raged;
4. He causes the springs of water to flow

With glory arrayed, majestic His state;
The lightning and wind His mission perform;
His voice they obeyed, the floods were assuaged;
In streams 'mid the hills and valleys below;

The light is His garment, the skies are His shade,
The earth He has found her station to keep,
Up-lifting the mountains He ordered a bound,
Beside them with singing the birds greet the day,

And over the waters His courts He has laid.
And wrapped as a vesture about her the deep.
Forbidden the waters to cover the ground.
And there the beasts gather their thirst to allay.

5. He wholly broke the staff of bread
And called for famine sore,
And He prepared His people's way
By sending one before.
Then Joseph, sold to slavery,
With cruel chains was bound;
Till his prediction came to pass,
Distress and grief he found.

10. He spread a cloud to cover them,
Most glorious and bright,
And made a fiery pillar shine
To give them light by night.
At their request He sent them quails,
And bread of heaven bestowed;
And from the rock, to quench their thirst,
The living waters flowed.

11. His sacred word to Abraham
He kept, though waiting long,
And brought His chosen people forth
With joy and thankful song.
The lands and toil of wicked men
He gave them to possess,
That they might keep His holy laws;
Jehovah praise and bless.

7. God sent His servant Moses then,
And Aaron, whom He chose;
Great signs and wonders they displayed
To terrify their foes.
In darkness they were taught to fear
God's great and holy Name;
On man and beast, on vine and field,
His awful judgment came.

8. He turned their waters into blood.
And frogs their chambers filled,
God spoke and swarms of flies appeared,
And lice for them He willed.
With flames of fire and hail He smote
Their figs and trees and vines,
The locusts came to eat their fruit,
The herbs consumed, as signs.

9. He smote the first-born in the land,
The chief of all their strength,
Enriched His people with the spoil
And brought them forth at length.
He led them forth in health and strength,
None weak in all their band,
And Egypt, filled with fear, rejoiced
To see them leave the land.
Praise Ye The LORD, For He Is Good

1. Praise ye the LORD, for He is good; Give thanks and bless His Name;
2. What tongue can tell His might-y deeds, His won-drous works and ways?
3. The Lord will bless and pro-sper those, Yea, blest in-deed are they,
4. O LORD, re-mem-ber me in grace, Let me sal-va-tion see;

His lov-ing-kind-ness chang-es not, From age to age the same.
O who can show His glo-ry forth, Or ut-ter all His praise?
Whose ways are just, who con-stant-ly His right-eous law ob-y.
The grace Thou show-est to Thy saints, That grace re-veal to me.

5. Let me behold Thy people's good
   And in their joy rejoice;
   With Thy triumphant heritage
   Let me lift up my voice.

6. In evil we have gone astray,
   And sinful is our race;
   Rebelliously our fathers walked,
   Forgetful of Thy grace.

7. Though they rebelled, yet for their help
   In saving strength He came
   To make His power almighty known
   And glorify His Name.

8. He brought them safely through the sea
   And over-welmed their foes;
   Their faith was stirred, and for the time
   Their songs of praise arose.

9. Forgetful soon, they tempted God,
   Nor for His counsel cared;
   He sent them leanness in their souls,
   Whilst they earth's bounties shared.

10. With envy they regarded those Whom God to them had sent;
    The opening earth, the kindling flame,
    Brought awful punishment.

11. A golden image they adored,
    And worshiped at its shrine;
    Thus they despised the living God
    And scorned His love divine.
Their God And Saviour They Forgot

1. Their God and Saviour they forgot, Their help and their stay,
2. Yea, they despised the pleasant land, The promised land of God,
3. They sacrificed to heathen gods, And God their sin repaid;
4. The Lord approved the righteous act Of him who sin abhorred,

5. But Moses pleaded the promised grace And turned God's wrath away,
6. And tempted Him to make them fall And scatter them abroad.
7. Then holy wrath avenged the wrong, And so the plague was stayed.
8. And honoured him for evermore With just and great reward.

9. When unto God they cried, He heard
10. He even touched their captors' hearts,
11. Save us, O LORD, our gracious God,
12. Blessed be the LORD our covenant God,

5. By wicked strife they angered God,
6. Ensared, they served the heathen gods,
7. Against His own inheritance
8. Though from their harsh oppressor's hand

3. His wrath they did provoke;
3. And, stirred by their rebellious cries,
4. Jehovah's wrath arose,
4. oftentimes He set them free,

3. Their leader rashly spoke.
3. Their leader rashly spoke.
4. His chosen people He condemned
4. Rebellious still, they were brought low

3. The blood of children sacrificed
3. The very land defiled.
4. To serve their heathan foes.
4. In their iniquity.

4. And made their foes
4. Compassionate and pitiful
4. That we may triumph in Thy praise
4. All praise to Him accord;
4. To feel His people's woes.
4. To feel His people's woes.
4. And bless Thy holy Name.
4. Let all the people say, Amen.
4. Praise ye, praise ye the LORD.
